

The Inglemoor High School Music Boosters Patron Donation

Patrons are the backbone of The Inglemoor High School Music Boosters. Through generous donations, we are able to provide an enhanced musical experience for all students in the Inglemoor music program – band, choir, and orchestra. Funds raised by The Music Boosters are used in a variety of ways, including: music coaches who works with small groups of students to help improve their skills, entry fees for competitions, financial aid to students who are not able to pay fees, music for our many different groups, instruments, and many other things.

Please give as generously as you can! Donors are acknowledged in our concert programs and on our booster website.
